Statutory Declaration Under Section 4(1) (b) of the RTI Act 2005

ABOUT RIGHT TO INFORMATION (RTI)

The Right to Information Act, 2005 (22 of 2005) has been enacted by the Parliament and has come into force from 15 June, 2005. The main objective of the Right to Information Act is to promote the transparency and accountability of the working process of the Government. The act is a good step for the citizens who seek information about the activities of government. The Right to Information Act 2005 instructs on time response to citizen while requesting for information on functioning of Govt. offices or institutions in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority. This initiative is taken by the Department of Public Grievances, Ministry of Personal, Department of Personal and Training and Pensions in order to provide a RTI Portal Gateway to the citizens for quick search of information. It is mandatory to provide RTI related information to the seekers. According to UGC guidelines all Universities and Colleges established by law made by Parliament or by State Legislature or by notification by the appropriate Government or owned, controlled or substantially financed directly or indirectly by funds provided by the Government shall come within the purview of a Public Authority under this Act. Hence Lokayat Education Society's Bhai Kishanrao Deshmukh Mahavidhyalaya, Chakur, category, Section 4(1) (b) of RTI Act 2005 is applicable for College.

As per the provision of Right to Information Act 2005, any information following in the domain of the college can be obtain from it, if otherwise not restricted as per the provision of the act. Application under the RTI Act should be addressed to the public information officer. In case the applicant is not satisfied with the answer or doesn't get reply within time, he/she can file an appeal with the Appellate Authority. The applicant would be required to pay for stationary/photocopy chares separately, if applicable, as per the Act. All the cells or committees of the college are under statutory bodies and u/s 4 (1) of RTI Act, 2005.
